EXPERIENCE

Design intern
Red Morning Ltd. (Sep-Oct 2010)

I spent 6 weeks full time at Red Morning Ltd, where I was in charge of branding Red Morning and its first product, Leemail. I also designed the user experience and iconography for the Leemail Chrome plugin.

Digital Content Producer
Absolute Radio (2008-2009)

My role involved creating commercial microsites for promotions and in-house content. I worked on branding for Who's Calling Christian and Summer of Live events. I was also responsible for filming, editing and creating promotional content for band performances and awards ceremonies. Clients I worked with include Terminator Salvation, Canon, Tourism Victoria, Forza Motorsport and more.

Freelance
Ongoing

I have experience working as a freelancer, creating websites, brand identity, flyers/promotional artwork and more. Clients include Absolute Radio, The Eden Project and New College (Oxford University).
